RED CROSS PARTY FRIDAY EVENING

Numerous Careless Driving Convictions

BAD BRAKES BRING $10 FINE

Mrs. Catherine Hanley of Toronto appeared at police court on Tuesday to answer to a charge of careless driving, laid as the result of an accident which occurred this side of the Bradford flats on October 18.

"I was driving towards Bradford and was just approaching the curve when a car, which was approaching me, came around the curve and swung out," testified Mrs. M. Scott of Orillia. "I drove as near to the edge as I could, but our car was struck a glancing blow. The impact set us against the rail fence, knocking a post off."

Constable Ferguson, who investigated, stated that the point of impact was six feet east of the centre line.

"I was coming around the curve and the headlights of the other car momentarily blinded me," admitted Mrs. Hanley. "I have been driving a car for 15 years and have never had an accident before."

A fine of $10 and $8 costs was imposed.

Alfred Hadaway of Toronto, charged by Constable Ferguson, with careless driving, pleaded not guilty.

Victor Stephenson of Toronto testified that as he was driving on No. 11 highway, on October 14, Hadaway came up behind him and hit the back right side of his car, went past him on the right-hand side through the guard rail and turned over in the ditch. $25 damage was done to the Stephenson car. It was raining off and on all the way, and the roads were wet.

Constable Ferguson testified that he was sitting about four hundred feet from where this accident occurred and observed the line of traffic which was stopping at the stop street. He saw no reason why accused could not have seen that the twenty cars ahead of him were parked.

"I was in the line of traffic, and the visibility wasn't any too good," said accused. "It had stopped raining, but the spray was still flying. When the car ahead of me stopped I saw I wasn't going to stop, so went around on the other side. When my car stopped the cable was around it to keep it from rolling over."

"The car ahead of us stopped very quickly and it was the only thing we could do," testified Russell Haines, a passenger in Hadaway's car.

Accused was fined $5 and costs.

Eddie Myers of Toronto was fined $15, and $21.60 costs as the result of an accident some few weeks ago, near Queensville, when he struck two cars, one from Newmarket and the other from Toronto.

HEAVY FROSTS CAUSE LOSS OF 7,000 BARRELS OF APPLES

Aurora orchards and Mulock's orchard at Armitage have, we understand, lost between three and four thousand barrels of apples on account of heavy early frosts. The apples are being shaken off the trees and will be used for vinegar.

Five Hundred Sign Petition For Vote

DIVERSITY OF OPIN- IONS EXPRESSED

A petition signed by almost five hundred citizens, asking for a vote on whether the council elected in December should be in office for a term of one or two years, was presented to town clerk N. L. Mathews on Monday.

While the petition was circulated throughout the factories and in some sections of the town, a thorough canvass was not made, or we estimate a good thousand voters would have affixed their names.

And not all the five hundred were opposed to two year terms for municipal bodies, but they were opposed to not having a say in the matter.

A number of citizens opined that the council should be elected on the English plan as outlined at council by Alderman Evans, so many for three years, some for two years and a number for one year. Others thought that council should sit for a five-year term, then the electors would be more careful in their selections.

Another school of thought was to do away with council entirely and appoint a commission of three, with a town manager.

Then there were a few who wanted to get rid of the whole outfit, council, mayor, reeve, clerk and engineer. One citizen would not sign the petition as he said any fool could circulate anything, and the majority of the electors would sign without even reading what it was about.

The unluckiest cut of all, however, was "why not do away with elections altogether, and let Hebb and you name who you want?"

However, with the vote on one or two year terms, and the town put to the expense of an election, it is hoped that more interest will be taken in municipal affairs and that a goodly number of worthy citizens will offer themselves as candidates for the honor of representing the town in this august body.

MISS JEAN DAVIS IS GUEST ARTIST AT LIONS MEETING

Miss Jean Davis, contralto, favoured the Newmarket Lions and their ladies with several delightful groups of numbers at the meeting on Monday evening.

Jean's lovely voice and charming manner won her much merited applause.

Preceding the recital the Lions disposed of several items of business, and discussed other questions of importance, chief among which was the cancelling for this year of the Halloween party for the kiddies, which would have cost $100.

The committee appointed thought that this money could be used to better advantage in war times, and that the kids would still be able to get their "shell out" from other sources.

ERA OF PROSPERITY PREDICTED FOR BANNER COUNTY

A $8,214 increase in population and a $10,000,000 increase in taxable assessment, in ten suburban municipalities of Toronto, within the past years, has county officials predicting a new era of prosperity for York County.

Building is booming, according to municipal representatives in York Township, East York, Scarborough, Leaside, North York, Mimico, Weston, Etobicoke, Long Branch, Mimico and New Toronto, and by 1942 the 201,739 population of these districts will be greatly increased as will the $96,216,275 taxable assessment.

A ten per cent. increase in both assessment and population is predicted in some of the municipalities while others are more conservative in their estimations. A detailed report of these improvements will be presented to the county council by its assessment commission at its next session.

Along with local improvements and added expenditures of the depression years taxes increased in these municipalities. Despite this increase the various treasury departments under the guidance of the Ontario Department of Municipal Affairs were successful in increasing yearly their percentage of tax collections.

Between 1930 and 1940 New Toronto increased its percentage of collections from 79.2 to 89.4; Weston from 82.5 to 97, and York Township 66.4 to 80 per cent. Etobicoke's collections jumped from 67 per cent. to 75 per cent; Long Branch from 62.7 to 72, and Mimico from 68 to 76. In East York the rise was from 66.1 to 71.6, and in Scarborough from 57.9 to 71.2. North York showed an increase of four per cent.

Population in the municipalities in 1930 and 1940 were as follows: Weston, 4,606-5,000; York Township, 62,978-77,110; Etobicoke, 12,300-16,074; Long Branch, 3,537-4,258; Mimico, 5,422-7,194; East York, 30,555-38,394; Scarborough, 18,212-23,208; North York, 11,055-18,205; Leaside, 860-4,001.

Taxable assessment in the municipalities in 1930 and 1940 were: New Toronto, $12,313,538-$11,147,234; Weston, $3,814,594-$4,020,990; York Township, $25,717,306-$28,690,207; Etobicoke, $8,400,000-$7,371,550; Long Branch, $1,401,882-$1,585,834; Mimico, $4,-

CHRISTMAS BOXES FOR BOYS OVERSEAS

IRISH REGIMENT MAKE IMPRESSIVE SHOWING IN PARADE HERE

The town's main thoroughfare was jammed with citizens and country folk Sunday afternoon to witness the parade of the Toronto Irish. Arriving by a fleet of buses, the Irish formed up at the Stuart Scott School grounds, parading along Eagle and north on Main. Headed by their mascots, two splendid Great Danes, and the pipe band, the battalion made a pretty picture in their khaki uniforms and green berets. Mayor Dr. Boyd took the salute in front of the King George Hotel. Before coming to Newmarket the battalion had paraded through Aurora and held a drum-head service at St. Andrew's College.

Boys Appreciate Boxes Sent By Comfort Fund

LOCAL LADS IN NEWFOUNDLAND HEARD FROM

Letters have been received from a number of Newmarket boys this week, expressing their thanks for boxes sent by the Soldiers' Comforts. Read these letters, and if you wish to share in the joy of financing the Christmas boxes, send your cheque in to-day.

To the Veterans' Association.

Received parcel and have enjoyed all the tasty eatables. Thanks for everything, its sure nice to get things from home. Somehow they have a taste all their own. I hope you keep up the good work. I'm sure the boys go for the parcels in a big way.

We are getting some very bad raids now, but believe me, when the yet stormy weather sets in, it will stop a certain amount. We are about 17 miles from London, on the S.E. side, and believe me these night raids are no fun. We hoped to stay here the winter, but I believe we are going to the East Coast again soon. Who knows it may be the east. Just a hint, ha!ha!

However, once again, thank you very much.

Sincerely,
L/Cpl. Smith.

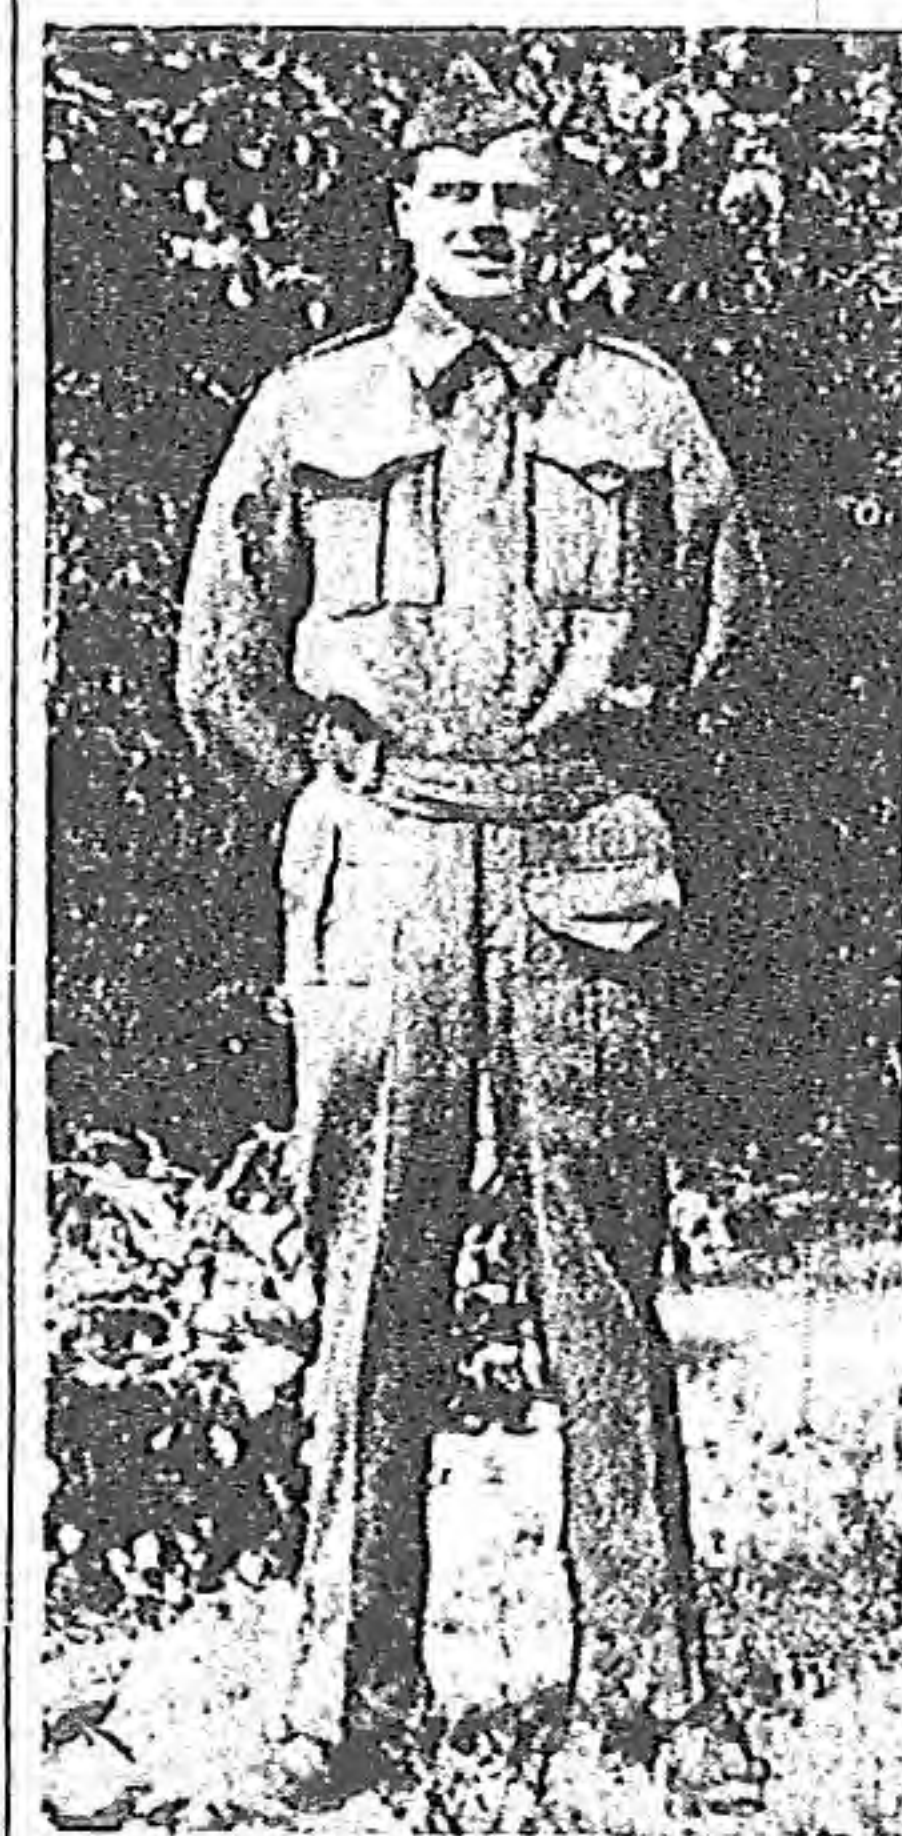

Gentlemen:
Just a line to express my sincere appreciation for the swell parcel you sent to me. It was a very pleasant surprise, and the contents of it are being thoroughly enjoyed by both myself and my tent-mates. I know that they join me in a very sincere "thank you."

Being old soldiers, you all probably have felt the thrill of knowing that all the folks at home are pulling for you, and in reality are fighting just as hard as you are. That is something the sort of feeling I am getting as I write this letter, so you'll have to excuse if the words get tangled up.

I'd like to tell you all about what I am doing, but as these letters are censored, that is impossible. However, I'm enjoying myself, and I think army life is tops. We are just waiting for the day when we can get after the enemy.

EVENTS TO BE HELD THROUGHOUT COUNTY

The recently organized Citizens Committee for Military District (23) Newmarket, convened at the camp here Sunday, on an inspection trip of the trainees' recreation hall and the sergeants' mess.

The recreation hall, it was found, was fitted out fairly well with writing-tables, stationery and card tables and chairs provided by the Salvation Army, but there were no chesterfields or easy chairs of any description.

The Salvation Army, by the way, conducts a canteen in this building on a no-profit basis, the profits, if any, being turned back to provide sports equipment, etc.

The sergeants' mess was also found to be barren of home comforts, so a committee of Mrs. N. L. Mathews, Mrs. Jack King, Mrs. Allan Cody and Mrs. Wesley Brooks was appointed to go into the matter.

Monday these ladies met, and by Wednesday a number of used chesterfields, easy chairs and tables had been purchased and placed at the camp. The ladies also purchased curtains and drapes for both buildings.

This equipment is to be paid for by donations, and by special evenings sponsored by various groups through the county.

Attending the Sunday meeting were representatives from Keswick, Sharon, Holland Landing, Queensville, Newmarket Red Cross, Newmarket Women's Institute and a large delegation of ladies from Lex McKenzie's home town of Woodbridge.

The Citizens' Committee for Military District (23) Newmarket is a county group, organized to provide home comforts for the trainees at the military camp.

KETTLEBY TURKEY SUPPER IS BIG EVENT

Despite the rain and snow of last evening, the annual turkey supper at Christ Church, Kettleby, attracted the usual throng, who were amply repaid for turning out.

Following the bounteous repast, a concert on a par with the supper was presented by Russ Creighton and his concert party. The congregation of Christ Church appreciate the response of the people of the district.

L.S.R. CONCERT PRO- VIDES VERSATILE PROGRAM

A little more robust than the "Marjorie" of Great War days, who was the toast of thousands of Canadian soldiers, Sergt. Ross Hamilton, guest artist with the Lake Superior Regiment concert party here last Friday evening, was still alluring enough to be voted "worth the price of admission alone."

Marjorie's two numbers "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and "Oh Johnny," brought down the house, while her gowns, jewelry and accessories were marvels to behold.

Officers from the Newmarket Military Camp, who attended in a body, caught the eye of the singer, and two or three of the better looking men in uniform were presented with roses from her corsage as she tripped lightly off the stage and into their midst.

A short skit "The Sick Parade," written by Sergt. Pearson, provided plenty of action, while accordion, violin and vocal solos, Hill Billy band, cowboy yodeler, fan dancer and a rope act by an Indian member of the party, rounded out a splendid evening's entertainment.

EDITORIAL

THE CITIZENS' COMMITTEE

Last week an organization known as the Citizens' Committee For Military District 23 (Newmarket), was formed to provide home comforts for the boys at the camp. On Sunday, with representatives from almost every part of the riding present, an inspection of the recreation hall and other buildings, was made. With keen eyes the ladies looked the situation over, and mentally pictured the difference a few chairs, curtains and tables would make. Monday evening the sub-committee appointed had purchased a certain amount of necessities, and if you visit the camp this Sunday, you will see a vast change.

These comforts are to be paid for by funds raised throughout the district by bridges, euchres, etc., and we anticipate a hearty response.

Boys from your community—your son, your nephew or friend's son will be among that thousand who will be making the camp their home for thirty days. The Citizens Committee, with your help, want to show these lads that York is truly the banner county. After a hard day's work the youths will appreciate comforts comparable to what they have been used to at home.

A FINE GROUP

It has been our pleasure the past few weeks to make the acquaintance of practically all the officers at the military camp, and we only wish that every mother and dad who have boys, or will have boys under their charge, could get to know these splendid men.

Colonel Harkness, a big, jovial fellow, talks incessantly about his officers, and how efficient they are. Major Geary is forever tactfully contacting individuals or groups to provide little extras for the boys, while the other officers, majors, captains and lieutenants tell you that the trainees are, to a man, willing, intelligent and efficient. There is no doubt that there is the finest co-operation between officers and men. The results obtained in the short period of training are evidence of this.

Men for the second period of training are being notified to prepare to come to camp. In a few short days the first group of trainees will be leaving us. Among the pleasant recollections of their army days we opine, will be the consideration and co-operation of their officers.

SHOCKING CONDITIONS IN GERMANY

A glimpse—very revealing of living conditions in Germany—was afforded recently in a monthly news letter issued by the Y.W.C.A. in London, England. It was quoted recently in Toronto by Dr. Gordon Bates of the Health League of Canada to demonstrate just how the health and general welfare of the German people is ruthlessly sacrificed in order to feed the war machine.

Old age pensioners, even though over 70 years of age, have been medically examined and sent back into industry. More than 500,000 women, 60 years old or more, have been employed as full-time farm laborers. Long hours in mining and similar industries have doubled diseases and accidents since Hitler came to power. Such deficiency diseases are rickets, and tuberculosis among children, are increasing steadily, the news letter shows.

German farmers are forced to sell their products at low prices to Nazi authorities, who resell them to the public at an enormous profit. Even so, ration cards permit the buying of only six eggs in four weeks, and similar restrictions are placed on milk, bread, butter, margarine, lard, sugar, cheese, meat and other necessary foods. Tea, coffee and cocoa are unobtainable; but "chocolate powder" is prepared from ground acorns and tea from blackberry leaves and apple peel.

These were the conditions before the actual start of the war. They are far worse now, the Y. W. C. A. report declares. Prices now far exceed the pre-war level, but wages have been lowered and extra taxes imposed. A 50 per cent increase of income tax for incomes of more than 50 marks a week is one example. But, bad as are conditions in Germany herself, they are far worse in countries which Hitler has invaded and subdued, the news letter asserts.

The New Letter does not say so, but it is known from other correspondents that Hitler and his gang of Nazi slave drivers never do without the best coffee available or indeed any other expensive or difficult to procure articles of food. Butter is sent them daily from conquered Denmark in generous quantities, and the best of meats, fish, etc., are at their disposal. Well, the mills of the gods grind slowly, but surely the German people—admittedly a race with some magnificent qualities—will not stand this sort of treatment indefinitely. The longer this savage war goes on the greater the hope that the German people themselves will welcome our conquering armies when they at last are able to take the offensive, and March to Berlin.

NOTE AND COMMENT

To-morrow night, the Red Cross dance. Could you spend a dollar and a half to better advantage? We think not.

To-night is Hallowe'en, and while the old days of moving small buildings and hoisting wagons on top of schools have past, it is best to watch your step.

What's this? No dish-washing or potato-peeling for the young men called up for military training? When these youths assume home duties such domestic talents will be missed; and they will be harder to acquire later in life.—Globe and Mail.

In spite of all her talk about winning the war, Germany has already learned her sorrow that this is an entirely different war. In 1870 Germany was able to keep the war out of her own country. The same thing happened in the war of 1914-18. Although beaten, the German people experienced little of the horror and devastation of war. This time they are finding out how destructive war really is. Just what effect this is going to have on the morale of the German populace time alone will tell.—Orangeville Banner.

OTHER EDITORS ON THE MUNICIPAL QUESTION

In almost every town and township throughout the county the ratepayers have been given a vote on the proposed two-year term for councils, trustees and commission members. But in the top of York, the public apparently want to keep their councils in office for two years or maybe for the duration of the war. At Newmarket some of the council had the idea it would be fairer to let the people vote on the idea, but a majority were against the idea. So a petition is being taken to force council to hold the vote.—Sutton Reporter.

The village of Alliston will vote on two separate questions on January 1, when the electors will be asked to express their opinion for or against daylight saving. The second question is whether they are in favour of two-year terms for councillors. It is not a bad idea to allow the electors to express their opinion at the polls on such questions. We are fighting for democracy, so let's practice it in a real way. Unfortunately public interest is not aroused as it should be to municipal matters, which is anything but a healthy sign. Submitting bylaws and vital questions, is both interesting, fair, and tends to provoke public interest.—Stouffville Tribune.

Richmond Hill and Vaughan Council, and we believe the majority of municipal councils throughout Ontario, are taking the democratic way in submitting the question of a two-year term for council to the people. If the council did not submit the question to the voters the council elected next January would automatically serve for two years or more under the new provincial legislation. The Richmond Hill and Vaughan councils have taken the sportsmanlike and British method of giving the people who pay the taxes the opportunity of deciding the question.—Richmond Hill Liberal.

In times of great crises great men arise. In England, Winston Churchill has arisen. . . Churchill is a man of sincerity and determination, yet a man of realism and decision. His sincerity is unquestioned and his determination fires courage into the hearts of the weak. No matter how grave or complex the situation, he can coldly analyze, act swiftly and strike deadly.

His frankness instills confidence in the Empire. When Churchill speaks the whole world sits up and listens, because his utterances pulse with the rhythm of a man of great emotional depth and stability, whose faith in the cause for which he fights will brook no defeatism.—Lloyd-minster Times, Sask.

At the moment the weekly newspapers of the province and some of the dailies are warning the municipal voters to be on the alert, otherwise through their indifference and the desire on the part of municipal councils to slip in for two years instead of one, they may lose the opportunity to exercise their municipal franchise for, at least two, probably more years. As arranged, the electors may be tricked if they "don't watch out" and a year hence when the privilege of voting is gone, gone, won't they be mad. The honest-to-goodness method for councils is to let the electors have their say on the question, are you or are you not in favor of a two-year term, or are you in favor of annual elections. Councils are expected to do the business of those they represent fairly and openly, and most of them do. Omitting something that seriously affects the franchise enjoyed since municipal government came in Ontario will scarcely be playing the game. It has too many earmarks of the selfish interest.—Collingwood Enterprise-Bulletin.

Most of the urban councils already heard from have passed the necessary bylaw to provide for a vote of the electors as to whether or not the municipal representatives for 1941 shall hold office for two years. Very few township councils seem to have signified their intentions with respect to this legislation. The main responsibility in this matter now rests with the municipal councils, though provision is made for a vote upon the demand of a five per cent. petition. Failure, on the part of the councils, to provide for a vote is tantamount to telling the electors that they cannot have a say as to who shall represent them in 1942 regardless of whether the record of the 1941 body meets with the approval of the ratepayers or not. It should also be borne in mind that this two-year legislation applies to all municipal elective representatives, such as school trustees, village trustees, utilities commissioners, etc. If any ratepayers wish to give their representatives the benefit of their opinion on this two-year plan, they have not much time to lose.—Barrie Examiner.

One argument was advanced as a reason why council should not submit this question to a vote—the possibility that there might not be an election. If a vote was submitted on the question of a two-year term, the expense of an election could not be avoided. While this is quite true it is possible we have overworked this idea in the past. For several years, particularly during the depression period, every effort has been made at times to avoid the expense of an election, and frequently our municipal representatives have had an acclamation. Whether this has had anything to do with it or not, it has been particularly noticeable during the past few years that it is becoming increasingly difficult to get men to fill the council vacancies. If we are to retain the privileges that appertain to a democracy, we should guard them very carefully and not permit the Legislature to take any of these rights away from us without a protest. If we do we are only encouraging dictatorship, and the present war shows where dictatorship leads to.

Perhaps the ratepayers may prefer a two-year term for members of council, but they should at least have the privilege of expressing their opinion by their vote on election day.—Carleton Place Canadian.

DO YOU REMEMBER

Say you are 40 years old. When you were 21 the last of the C.E.F. was coming back from France, the speak-easy era was just starting. Man o' War was a 3-year-old, Mary Pickford was America's sweetheart, some of the White Sox conspired to throw the World Series, and one explained, 'I know I done wrong. But I did it for the wife and kids.' Females were wearing short skirts 18 inches from the ground. There was no broad-casting. And—but what do you remember of the year in which you cast your first vote?

William Allen White, Kansas editor, was talking about droughts. One summer, during a terrible drought, a tourist was passing through Arizona. He put up one night in a town so dried up that even the trees had yellowed and withered.

"Does it never rain here?" the tourist said to the landlord of the hot, dusty hole.

"Rain?" said the landlord. "Why, stranger, there's five-year-old bullfrogs in this here town wot ain't never learned to swim yet."

"How long have you been working for the company?"
"Ever since the boss threatened to fire me."—Rock Island Magazine.

A young and untried fireman was serving at his first fire, and the chief, rushing up to him, shouted: "Climb up that ladder to the eighth floor, crawl along the cornice to the fourth window, drop down three floors, and catch that wooden sign you see smouldering. Then swing yourself along to the second window, break the glass, and go in and see if there's any one about. . . Well, what are you waiting for?"

"Pen and ink," said the new man. "I want to hand in my resignation."—Tit-Bits.

A change in the method of notifying the Dominion Statistician of loss of a national registration card, or change of postal address or marital status was announced Friday by the department of national war services.

Starting Nov. 1, Canadians desiring to place information before the statistician will do so through their nearest post office, rather than direct to the statistician. The change is being made to cut down the heavy burden of correspondence.

In case of marriage, parties concerned will visit the post office and complete a new form. The wife will surrender her registration certificate, issued in her maiden name, and will get a new one in her married name.

PAYS TRIBUTE TO FORMER NEWMARKET MAN

The following article which appeared on the financial page of The Globe and Mail of Tuesday, will be of interest to Newmarket people, who will remember Bill Cochenour as one of the partners in the town's biggest department store of some 30 years ago.

"When a big Company like Hollinger spends $100,000 on a property and quits, it takes courage to stick to it.

"Well, it didn't discourage W. M. Cochenour, President of Cochenour William, as he had unbounded faith in the Red Lake district. He interested Charlie Gentles & Sammy Zacks. They furnished the funds for a 200-ton mill and today Cochenour is a real gold mine, with every indication of a high grade producer with big tonnage.

"Cochenour pays its first dividend Nov. 15. To bring in a Gold Dividend Payer is the height of ambition of every mining man. Congratulations to Bill Cochenour and his associates."—By J. J. Carrick.

MT. PISGAH CHURCH MARKS ANNIVERSARY

Celebration of the seventieth anniversary of Mt. Pisgah United Church, Whitchurch Township, was concluded with a turkey supper Friday night when 300 gathered.

A twelve-piece orchestra from Newmarket, under the leadership of Harold Jackson, played throughout the evening, while Rev. Herbert W. Piercy of Niagara Falls gave a dramatic presentation of Irving Bacheller's "Keeping Up With Lizzie."

Greetings were brought from Toronto Centre Presbytery by Rev. Douglas Davis and Rev. H. J. McKay, chairman and secretary of the Presbytery. Rev. G. W. Lynd, one-time pastor, gave a few reminiscences of past days.

Mt. Pisgah Church was dedicated by Rev. Wm. Morley Punshon, on October 19, 1870, and was known up to that time as Richardson's appointment on the Aurora circuit.

Erected on one of the hilltops of Whitchurch, Dr. Punshon called it Mt. Pisgah, which name it has borne ever since. A log church had served the community before the erection of the present church from time to time of the earliest settlers in the township. Two persons, Mrs. Henry Smith and Mrs. John Eade were the only ones present last night who were at the opening 70 years ago.

FARMERS' INCOME REPORTED HIGHER

Although farm prices generally have been only slightly higher in 1940 than in 1939 the cash income of farmers as a whole during the first seven months of 1940 has been 30 per cent higher than for the corresponding period of a year ago. This preliminary estimate of farm cash income has been made by the Agricultural Branch of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Practically all sources of income showed increases. In the case of wheat, deliveries for the first seven months of 1940 were 85 per cent above those of the similar months of 1939 while the price remained approximately the same. Income from the sale of flax was nearly four times as great because of higher prices combined with much higher deliveries.

The cash received from the sale of meat animals was up 23 per cent for the period with hogs making the main contribution to this increase. Despite the fact that hog prices averaged slightly below those of 1939 the greatly increased marketings resulted in an increase of 41 per cent in farmers' cash income from this source. The decline in cattle marketings was offset by somewhat higher prices.

Dairy producers also received greater income from all classes of production. There was a rise of 30 per cent in receipts from cheese, 11 per cent from butterfat and from 5 to 10 per cent from fluid milk.

In discussing the outlook for the balance of 1940 the Dominion Bureau of Statistics report suggests that it is not likely that the increase in income during the last 5 months of 1940 will be so great as was the case earlier in the year. While the increased marketings and higher prices for some products will tend to increase cash income, on the other hand restricted grain marketings will reduce income from that important source.

1941 CAR MARKERS READY NOVEMBER 12

Ontario auto markers for 1941 will be ready for issuance on Nov. 12th, Hon. Harry Nixon, Provincial Secretary, said in discussing delay in manufacturing the plates at the Ontario Reformatory at Guelph due to lack of steel which is going into war industry.

The type of steel used in markers is also used in rolling armour plate, it is explained.

While a delay has arisen, Mr. Nixon said the supply will expand by Oct. 25th, so that the 750,000 plates, of green lettering on a white background, will be complete and ready for distribution on Nov. 12.

This year markers must be obtained by Dec. 31, as the 1940 licenses are good to that date only. After the end of the year, it is likely that the government may grant a 15-day extension.

WHOSE MONEY
IS it?

WHAT money? Why—the money in the banks! The money carefully put away by you and your neighbours in savings accounts. The money you could have spent today but wanted to keep safely against some future need. The businessman's money for use in his normal operations. There are more than 4,846,000 bank deposit accounts, savings and current. Within these two classes the great majority of deposits are small or of moderate amount. But you'd be wrong if you assumed from this, that the rest of the deposits are owned by the few! Quite the contrary! The railways, for instance, have deposits in the chartered banks—and that indirectly includes the whole population of the Dominion. The trade unions have deposits. Millions of policy-holders share in the ownership of insurance companies' deposits. And don't overlook the deposits of wheat pools; farm co-operatives; churches; municipalities and municipal hydro commissions, school districts; school children's penny bank savings deposited with the chartered banks; and commercial and mining corporations with very wide lists of shareholders, large and small, all over Canada. Truly, money on deposit in Canada's chartered banks is owned, in fact, by you and your fellow-Canadians.

In war, as in peace, Canada's Chartered Banks maintain, uninterrupted, their useful services—safeguarding depositors' funds; facilitating the nation's business—looking forward to peace with freedom as the only sure basis of enduring prosperity.

CAMP NEWS

To most civilians one of the most interesting features of M.T.C. 23, is the "Bayonet Assault Course," which is being built by the boys of the first draft. The course consists of a trench and a series of dummies.

The trench is not a replica of a trench that would be used in actual warfare. It is merely a trench perfect in all details, except it has no communication trenches, and it is perfectly straight.

As you approach this trench from the front, you hardly realize that you are approaching such a fortification. All that meets the eye is a grassy rise, which is not even noticed in the uneven country in which it is situated. However, as you mount the parapet, you are greeted by a yawning hole, almost seven feet wide and five feet deep.

Along the slanting front wall is revetting of corrugated steel. Three feet down from the ground level, along the front, is a firing-step, two feet wide. Back of this, two feet deep and two feet wide, is an excavation which enables men to walk from one end of the trench to the other without being observed.

Extending for 78 yards in front of the trench is what seems to be a maze of dummies. However, on careful observation, it can be seen that the layout is methodical. The dummies are in seven rows, each of which stretches from one side of the trench to the other. Five rows consist of single dummies and two of double dummies.

Before a militiaman can consider himself trained, he has to be able to clamber out of the trench, fire and re-load his rifle on the run, and spear all the dummies, moving smoothly and easily as a ballet dancer.

Perhaps the residents of Newmarket were puzzled by the comparatively quiet of the streets of this well-known town last Tuesday week. It happened this way.

The youths in training at the Militia Training Camp, received their initiation in camp-cleaning duties when they lined up at one end of the camp and slowly walked to the other end, picking up all waste paper and other rubbish.

After this ceremony was completed, number ten hut, evidently thinking that their work had been the best, decided to take the white flag (symbolic of the cleanest hut) from number 13 hut, and planted it in front of number 10. However, the boys from number 13 decided otherwise, and a lively battle ensued. Before it was over, most of the huts in the camp were ably represented.

By the time the boys remembered their appointments in town, the flag had been torn to shreds and all huts had a portion of the trophy.

William Purdy of Keswick stated that he left his car in front of his house, facing north two and a half to three feet west of the pavement, on the evening of October 13. He heard an impact about 11 o'clock, and rushed out to find that it had been driven back six to eight feet against a stone wall. His car was damaged on the right side to the extent of $60. The accused stated that the lights of another car had blinded him.

Constable Morton, who investigated, stated that from marks on the shoulder of the road, the Purdy car was parked two feet west of the pavement.

Pte. Cowx of the Royal Regiment of Canada, who enlisted as a motor transport driver, stated that the Purdy car was not parked more than one foot from the pavement, with no lights on it. The lights of the car coming towards him, blinded him and he didn't see the Purdy car at any time.

Magistrate Woodliffe accepted this explanation and dismissed the charge.

Mrs. S. V. Gates of Weston, charged with careless driving by Constable Hayward, was assessed $5 and costs.

"On October 7, at approximately 8:30 a.m., I was called to an accident which happened at King City on the paved road on a curve leading to Schomberg Junction," testified the officer. "It had been raining and the road was wet. When I arrived there I found a car driven by Mrs. Gates on the north side of the centre line. This car had been going north and was making a turn to the east. The other car was going west and was being driven by Mrs. Holton of Freeman. The car driven by Mrs. Gates got part way around the curve when the impact occurred. There was broken glass scattered around north of the yellow line. The drivers of both cars told me it had happened on the north side of the road. The right front fender of the Gates car struck the centre of the radiator of the Holton car. Mrs. Holton was driving a 1940 Ford and Mrs. Gates a 1938 Willys."

Mrs. Holton testified that $70 to $80 damage was done to her car. She was travelling about 35 to 40 miles an hour. All she knew was that Mrs. Gates was coming towards her on the wrong side of the road.

Mrs. Gates stated that she was driving from 20 to 25 miles an hour. She saw the other car about one hundred and forty feet up the road, and then it seemed to be at the curve in an instant. She didn't think she had too much room on the highway, so applied her brakes, causing the car to skid.

"Mrs. Gates knew the kind of weather it was, and should have driven accordingly," remarked His Worship. "The road is marked. Mrs. Holton had no difficulty stopping, although she was driving twice as fast. There is no reason why Mrs. Gates couldn't have done the same thing. A car under proper control, wouldn't have got in this accident."

Charged with speeding by Constable Mount, John Evans of Bradford was fined $8 and costs; Lloyd Easterbrook of Toronto $5 and costs; Chester Cleaners, Toronto, $8 and costs. R. Noble of Bradford was fined $1 and costs for entering a stop street.

Charged with speeding by Constable Dunham, Charles Stephenson of Aurora was fined $8 and costs; John Rudhal of Windsor, $8 and costs.

Steve Harvilla of Bradford, charged by Constable Joe Jardine with having bad brakes, was fined $10 and costs.

"Half a minute!" replied the stranger. "I've just been reading about it in the guidebook. It says that the visitor, on entering, is struck by a statue of Hercules. Then he is stunned by the splendor of the grand staircase. A picture in the first room is full of punch, while farther on one is crushed by the overwhelming magnificence of another painting. Finally, brilliant colors run riot everywhere. No, sir, if I want a quiet half-hour I'll take a boxing lesson."—Selected.

The Bogartown Community Club supper was a marked success. Socially, financially and above all, gastronomically, it was all it should be, and the play added a note of gaiety which seems in keeping with such an event. As one woman remarked, "There was lots of fun, lots of food, lots of people and lots of work," and that is as good a summing up of any supper, as one can think of.

Miss McQueen spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Preston. Mrs. Elmer Starr was also a guest for the evening meal.

Mrs. John McClure spent Sunday with Mrs. Nelson, Newmarket.

Mr. and Mrs. Beardsall and children of Orillia, and Mr. and Mrs. Alan Forbes of Toronto spent the weekend as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Toole and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Toole.

Mrs. H. Ostley has returned home from Toronto, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Thompson, of that city.

The neighborhood prayer which was held on Monday of this week at Mr. B. Scott's, will be held at Mrs. G. McClure's on Monday next.

"Things"

There is a night which seems to hold all superstition in its fold; a night when sometimes you declare that witches still fly through the air; when even your own nice black cat seems glaring at you from the mat, instead of blinking pussy-sweet, from where it lies, curled at your feet.

On gateposts you may see a sight, designed to give an awful fright—a face illumined from within, to show up yellow wrinkled skin; while eyes give out a fixed bright stare, designed your courage to impair.

One is supposed on All Saints' Eve, signs of the future to receive. If you, your future husband's work, would like to know, then do not shirk, the task of dropping melted lead in water, ere you go to bed, and it will take shapes strange to see, to show what hobbies work will be.

A writer he might chance to be if you, a pencil there, should see, a teacher if you find a book, a shepherd if you find a crook; a bottle, maybe meet your eyes, and that, a doctor's work, implies.

Or you might take a nice large bowl and in it put some alcohol, but first, tin foil wrapped, put on, some dates and nuts—a small brass ring—then set your alcohol alight, and try to grab those things at sight. If you a date should grab, twill show, that where dates grow, tis there you'll go.

And then you take a looking-glass, and backward from the house you'll pass. Then with the looking-glass held high, you go beneath the darkening sky, and your true lover's face should be reflected in that glass, you see.

Of old, 'twas thought that on that night, all evil spirits made a flight, through city, village, town and vale, and evil leave along their trail; so holy fires were lighted round, and people moved in fear profound. But now, the only things we fear, is that our gates should disappear, and that, we do not blame at all, on evil spirits great or small, but know we've some small boy to thank, for just an age old Halloween prank. So all the fears of old, we've shed, and go quite peacefully to bed, for Halloween we now believe, is just another All Saints' Eve.

NEWS FROM KING CITY AND DISTRICT

On Saturday, October 26, at the United Church parsonage, King, a marriage was solemnized by the Rev. D. G. Davis, when Vina Marie Dooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dooks, became the bride of Norman Sloan, son of Mrs. Sloan, and the late John Sloan of Vaughan township.

The bride wore a Queen's blue sheer dress, with shirred bodice and sash, square neckline outlined in daisies with pearl centres. Her coat was navy blue wool with grey lynx fur trim, and the hat and accessories were navy blue. After a trip through Northern Ontario they will reside in Vaughan.

Patton—Nivens

Norwood United Church was the scene of the wedding on September 28, of Marjorie Edith, youngest daughter of Mr. A. L. Nivens and the late Mrs. Nivens, to Captain G. Lloyd Patton, only son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Earl Patton, Norwood, Manitoba, Rev. J. F. Stewart, officiated.

The bride wore white embroidered organza, the sweetheart neckline caught with net bows. Her finger-tip veil was held with a cluster of white roses, and she carried Johanna Hill roses and bouvardia.

Miss Iris Scott, as bridesmaid, wore baby blue novelty sheaf with matching appliqued jacket, and a floral hat of daisy chrysanthemums. Miss Austine Hendee, niece of the bride, as flower girl, wore pale peach sheer, with pale blue ribbon bows at the neckline, and a matching Juliet cap. She carried a nosegay of daisy chrysanthemums and cornflowers.

Captain Malcolm MacKenzie was best man, and the ushers were Lieut. Wilson Milne and 2nd Lieut. Walter Hinds.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's father, Enfield Crescent, and later Captain and Mrs. Patton left on a short wedding trip. They will reside in Winnipeg.

Captain Lloyd Patton is well-known in King district as the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Patton.

Mr. Billie Walker of Kinghorn was taken suddenly ill in Toronto on Monday, Oct. 21, and an operation was necessary. For a week he was in a very serious condition, but he reported having taken a turn for the better, and his recovery is hopefully anticipated. Unfortunately Billie had just taken a position in a Toronto firm.

Mrs. Jas. McClement celebrated her 80th birthday on Sunday, Oct. 27. As Mary Thompson she was born at Mildmay, Bruce Township. In 1884 she married Jas. McClement, coming to Kettleby by stage coach from Aurora as a bride. Three years later they moved to King. In 53 years Mrs. McClement has seen a great many changes in the village. Only three persons are living here now, who were residents when she first came to King. In 1895 Mrs. McClement was confirmed in All Saints' Anglican church, of which she is a faithful member.

Mrs. McClement does not have the best of health, but is kept busy visiting her son and grandchildren. She has one son, three grandchildren and two great grandchildren. Her cheerful disposition and merry laugh makes her home a very hospitable and kindly place to visit. We hope she enjoys many more birthdays.

Howard Folliott was honored at Aurora high school with the presidency of the Literary Society, while Alex. Campbell, Earl Wellesley and Jean Wilson were made executive members. Jean Wilson has also obtained the highest mark in years, in the recent school I.Q. test, according to the high school principal.

Eversley pupils, S.S. No. 22, are busy collecting Chipso, Crisco, and Camay wrappers for Red Cross purposes, and if they call on you, they will be glad of your patronage, early and often.

Mr. George Davis has taken an office position with the Swift Company of Toronto.

Pheasant hunters were not as plentiful in King Township as in former years of the two-day hunt. The weather on Oct. 25 and 26 was ideal, but the birds were scarce, due, according to game wardens, to earlier wet weather, foxes and cold winter.

The sudden death of Mr. Jas. B. McClure of King Township, came as a distinct shock to his wife, brothers and sisters, and many friends. On Thursday evening, Oct. 24, Mr. and Mrs. McClure attended the presentation for their neighbours, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, and enjoyed the evening in the best of health, but by morning, death had claimed his life.

Mr. McClure was born on the farm where he died, living there all of his 67 years, on the McClure homestead. His passing removes one of the most respected and honoured citizens of our township. In two years there have passed away from this household, Miss Mary McClure, the aged mother, Mrs. Elizabeth McClure, and now the second son James B. The remaining members are: Andrew McClure of King, and Norman of Toronto; Mrs. James Cameron of Weston, and Mrs. Cecil Keys of Toronto. To these is expressed much sympathy.

The funeral service was held on Monday, Oct. 28, Rev. Mr. Bailey, minister of Nobleton United Church, assisted by Rev. M. E. Burch of King, and Rev. F. V. Abbott of Schomberg was in charge of the funeral rites. Interment was made in King cemetery. Many floral tributes were offered in sympathy.

Schomberg United Church enjoyed one of the largest attendances at anniversary services ever presented for this annual occasion. Rev. W. Mayer, a former pastor, was the preacher. The choir of 18, directed by Mrs. H. Russell, gave special numbers, while solos were taken by Miss Christena Mitchell, Miss Marley Mitchell, Miss Bessie Sinclair and Mrs. Howard.

Nobleton Anglican Church also was well attended on Sunday for harvest thanksgiving service, Rev. Dr. Evans of Trinity, and Rev. E. G. Worrall preaching.

King United Sunday school heard Rev. Mr. Stewart and Rev. Mr. Halbert at anniversary services, well attended on Sunday.

The 83rd anniversary of All Saints' Church, King, will begin on Friday, November 1st, All Saints' Day, at 8 p.m., D.S.T., the rector in charge.

The preacher will be Rev. F. E. Powell, M.A., R.D., Rector of St. Barnabas, Toronto. Assisting ministers, Rev. F. V. Abbott, Rev. John Galloway, Rev. Douglas Davis, Rev. M. E. Burch. Visiting organist and choir leader, John Lovick, M.R.S.T., L.T.C.L.; visiting choir, the Male Choir (boys and men) of St. Barnabas. Four anthems, including the famous "Hear My Prayer," which contains two solos for boys' voices, will be sung. Included in this choir are Toronto Exhibition gold medalists.

The rector and wardens appreciate the very friendly and cordial support given to them, particularly during this heavy anxious year. We pray that we

Second service is on Sunday, Nov. 3rd, at 11 a.m., D.S.T., Holy Communion.

Celebrant and preacher, Rev. W. G. Walton, secretary of the Church Bible and Prayer Book Society; famous as a missionary to the Indians and Esquimaux.

Visiting organist and choir leader, Robert Jacques, Miss Doe (through the kindness of Lady Eaton.)

Third service, Nov. 3rd, at 8 p.m. D.S.T. Great missionary rally service, the rector in charge. Visiting organist—Dr. Robert Jacques.

The three churches in the parish are equally responsible for the success of this service. The collection will be divided proportionately between the three churches to help meet missionary allotments. The service will be a typically old-fashioned missionary service.

Miss Isobel Johnson, a Toronto vocalist of high standing, will sing.

Speakers: Rev. W. G. Walton, Miss Bowman, recently returned from Japan.

Mr. A. H. Cuttle, who will repeat his brilliant address: "This England of North America."

ROCHE'S POINT

CANADA'S WAR EFFORT

Weekly Review of Developments on the Home Front; Week of October 17-24

Told in Summary

1. Premier King indicates way will be open for full debate on war effort when Parliament sits on November 7. Legislators will meet on November 5, but House will be prolonged after brief sitting to make way for new discussions.

2. Defence Minister Hon. J. L. Ralston, on first inspection of camp for trainees called up under National Resources Mobilization Act, is enthusiastic in his praise. At Cornwall he congratulates youthful soldiers for their smartness and spirit and tells them they will be better men for their training.

3. Canadian Army orders 6,000 skis for winter training of soldiers in tactics so successfully used in Finland. Although no actual ski formations are expected at once, soldiers will be allowed to use them largely in a recreational way with view of their later utilization for wartime purposes.

BOONS OF THE BALD

Bald men have certain advantages. They pay no barber's bills. They need no hair rubs or other hair tonics, no shampoos to preserve its lustre, no sticky unguents to make it go down. Lucky fellows are the bald. Never again, swaddled and helpless, to endure the political or sporting opinions of a garrulous barber; never again with nervous hands to smooth the fretful tuft that a careless toilet has overlooked; and, above all, never again to have that sinking feeling that comes to so many men when they realize that they are beginning to go bald.—(From the Winnipeg Tribune).

Our Weekly Chat

By Golden Glow

To-day as I write (yesterday if you read this to-day, Thursday, October 24th), the weatherman decided to give us a change in the weather, and I have doors and windows open to the balmy breezes. Of course, it may not last, for look at yesterday, Tuesday—it was a glorious morning, clear and cold and sunny, but by noon overcast and gloomy all the rest of the day. Then, at night, it seemed to clear up, but by 10.30 it was pouring rain! However, to-day, Wednesday morning to be exact, as I write, it is now warm and sunny; the dry leaves are playing tag all along the street, and Indian women from the Reserve up north, are around selling their Indian baskets and boxes of sweet hay and birch-bark, embroidered with porcupine quills. They come annually at this time of year, looking for the Christmas trade. They do beautiful work, and I have many pieces, from sorted clothes' hamper to work-basket. Yes, even a little square box, beautifully done, that I keep for postage stamps. I have sent samples of their work over to England and it has been greatly admired.

I am getting away from what I started out to tell about, and that is our "squaw winter." (No reference to the above mentioned saleslady!) Yes, we have had our first snow and it made things particularly unpleasant for church-goers, as it was Sunday morning, and also it was the day for war manoeuvres carried on to the north of the town, along the famous Newmarket canal, by the Queen's York Rangers. Being a civilian and a feminine one in the bargain, I can't tell you much about all that except that I hear it was quite successful and satisfying to military authorities. They made the old stone house up the canal (The Haunted House, as we used to call it) the H.Q., and the enemy was supposed to come over the ridge beyond the cemetery. Sentries were posted to turn back interested civilians so that they would not interfere with the day's plans. I hear they had machine guns and everything else, and they dug trenches and made emplacements and—oh, well, I guess anyone reading this will laugh, for you can see I don't know what I'm talking about! At any rate, they were at it until 6.30 o'clock and came home hungry as hunters, and muddy from tramping over swamps and ploughed fields etc., but everyone seemed to speak of it as "good work" and that was all that mattered!

Then, the soldiers up at our training camp are making a good name for themselves, and I do believe they are enjoying the experience. Two weeks to-day since they arrived, and in two weeks time they will be gone, and a few days after that the next group will be here. The authorities have arranged it that no soldiers will be kept here in training over the Christmas holidays, for when the November contingent is through, no more are to be in camp till the New Year. I think that was a kindly gesture on the part of the government, and we should appreciate it as such.

Speaking of Newmarket camp, different ones have spoken to me about the Sunday morning drum-head service in connection with it, and say they would like to attend, only they always go to their own service at their church. Well, the only thing I can suggest is why not have a huge community drum-head service in the Arena before the present contingent is through—and before the weather gets too cold for the citizens to attend? It is much too chilly for people to attend an out-of-doors service at this late date, and if the Arena could be made available, then why not? Our townspeople are really interested in the soldier-boys, and would welcome such a service, and all could surely be accommodated in the Arena—the soldier-boys in the centre (they stand at their drum-head service anyway) and the civilians in the seats. I offer this suggestion, but I would not know to whom to offer it except to Mayor Boyd and the town council. The two Newmarket hands are always so willing to give their services. I think myself it would be a wonderful service.

The wild geese are flying south—so winter must have come to our northern regions. The robins have gone, and many other species of our summer birds, except, of course, starlings, and the sparrows. But the squirrels are so busy gathering their winter store of nuts that they rather take your attention away from the scarcity of birds. Some trees have shed their leaves, while others are still green, and do not seem to have lost any so far. But the autumn beauty of our trees is now only a memory! The leaves on one of my maple trees were absolutely beautiful, and I gathered many brilliant flaming red ones to wax. Every letter I have written since has contained several, so my letter friends can see for themselves what Ontario does in the way of painting maple leaves.

In last week's paper I saw a delightful little poem, written by Edna Jacques, and I feel sure she will not mind me quoting it here, for it is too beautiful to miss and some may not take the same daily paper.

IT WOULDN'T BE FALL
It wouldn't be fall without smoke and haze,
The hills all bare and the trees ablaze,
The cricket's song and the dry hot sod,
And fields all bordered with golden rod.

It wouldn't be fall without laden boughs,
And the warm sweet fragrance of open mows,
Cluttered stooks and the smell of grain,
Rich like the perfume after rain.

It wouldn't be fall without frost at night,
And the birds all ready to make their flight,
Chattering around in the garden bare,
Filling with song the golden air.

It wouldn't be fall without sodden leaves,
And the drip of rain in the wooden eaves,
Purple asters to nod and fold,
Wide old gardens and fields of gold.

The feel in your veins of changing things,
The sound in the night of hurrying wings,
Scarlet vines on the garden wall—
Without all these, it wouldn't be fall.

And now I must end this rambling talk, but before I do, I want to say that Ottawa advises us all to get our Christmas parcels away as soon as possible. It says in a little item in the paper: "Due to the international situation, the sailing times of ships carrying mail to other countries for the Christmas season cannot be announced." And should delays occur then our letters and parcels may be late and what is so disappointing as late Christmas cards and letters and gifts? Our boys in Iceland, at any rate, should be looked after at once, for in the ordinary way letters take over a month at best to reach here from them. Sew the parcels in strong cotton, then wrap in two thicknesses of heavy paper with a good stout string or cord to tie securely. Write name and address in carpenter's black pencil, besides the custom's declaration, and all should be well. For the boys in Iceland, be sure to add "Z Force," c/o Base Post Office, Canada.

And now, as Jim Hunter of radio fame says, "so long for this time." And cherrio.

DO YOU EAT ENOUGH VEGETABLES?

Do you eat enough vegetables? Valuable as they are in minerals and vitamins, vegetables must be included in the things we eat. So states an article in the current issue of the magazine 'Health,' prepared by the nutrition committee of the Health League of Canada.

Not all vegetables are equal from a nutritive point of view the article points out. Some vegetables supply iron, others do not. We get Vitamin A from one kind of vegetables and vitamin C from another.

Cabbage, spinach and carrots are good sources of vitamin A, which is necessary to maintain normal vision and to prevent disease. Green cabbage is much richer in vitamin A than white cabbage. The outer leaves of cabbage are more valuable than the inner heart.

Without vegetables and fruit, people would be deprived of the important vitamin C, which safeguards us against scurvy. Tomatoes, cabbage, turnips and potatoes are chief sources of this vitamin. Orange juice and tomato juice also are good.

Cabbage and green leaved vegetables are valuable in their iron content, needed to prevent anaemia. Dried beans are also good iron producers. At least two vegetables should be served every day.

Among the necessary body building materials are: proteins, certain minerals and vitamins. Proteins may be obtained from sources, but not all are equal value as body building material. Those obtained from meat and vegetables are superior to those we get from grain, vegetables and nuts, for example. Meat and fish, therefore, are advisable in our regular diet.

The average man needs about 70 grams of proteins a day. Experts agree that a large portion of these should be drawn from milk, cheese, eggs, meat or fish. The following table shows the quantity derived from each:

3 glasses of milk	18 grams
1 one-inch cube of cheese	6 grams
1 egg	6 grams
1 normal slice beef	8 grams
Total	38 grams

The other 32 grams will be obtained from other of our daily foods.

DON'T STOP MY PAPER

(From Neepawa Press)
Don't stop my paper printer,
Don't strike my name off yet—
You know the times are stringent
And the dollars hard to get;
But tug a little harder
Is what I mean to do.
And scrape the dimes together,
Enough for me and you.
I can't afford to drop it,
I find it doesn't pay
To do without your paper
However others may.
I hate to ask my neighbors
To give me theirs on loan;
They don't just say, but mean it
Why don't you have your own.
You can't tell how we miss it,
If it by any fate,
Should happen not to reach us,
Or come a little late,
Then all is in a hubbub
And things go all awry;
And printer if you're married
You'll know the reason why,
I cannot do without it,
It is no use to try;
The other people take it
And printer so must I.
I too must keep me posted
And know what's going on
Or feel and be accounted
A foggy simpleton.
Then take it kindly printer,
If pay is somewhat slow,
For cash is not so plenty
And wants not few you know.
But I must have this paper
Cost what it may to me;
I'd rather dock my sugar
And do without my tea.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor: Newmarket the Friendly Town? Why hasn't this friendliness been extended toward our guests at the military camp?

These boys have had no means of becoming acquainted with the young people of this town. We thought that a dance perhaps, with patronesses to make introductions, would be ideal, and the town hall could be used.

Everyone has noticed how lonesome these boys look, walking up and down our Main street. Let's do something about it. Other towns provide various entertainments. What is the matter with us?

We thought you would be the person to further our suggestion. Just Friends.

Somehow I seem to have run out of words, so I'll have to close. So long for now, and once again, thanks a million.

Very sincerely yours, Bob Blencoe.

Oct. 8, 1940

Dear Sirs,—

Thank you very much for the cigarettes you sent to me. This is a good life, but your consideration of us is indeed very welcome, as you will know. Thanks again, very much.

Yours truly, R. W. Blencoe.

Sunday, Sept. 29, 1940.

The President Newmarket War Veterans' Association.

Dear Sir:

Thanks indeed for the grand parcel which arrived yesterday in perfect condition.

You are doing a swell job in sending these parcels to the Newmarket boys who are over here, and I am quite positive they are all received with the same satisfaction as mine is. The contents are certainly appreciated, and I am deeply grateful to all who make this possible.

Our camp location is just a little out of the way from the other units, and I haven't been able to get in touch with any of the home boys for quite some time, although I did run into Dave White shortly after he arrived in this country.

I noticed by the Express-Herald that Chuck Harrison wanted to get in touch with me, and I have been trying to locate him. The chap that he was talking to from our unit couldn't remember his name, so there wasn't much I could do about finding him at that time.

The weather here is gradually changing, and it is now quite cool in the evenings, but we are fortunate in being in steam-heated barracks with hot and cold running water, and excellent facilities for showers or baths, so we have no complaints of any kind.

Jerry attempted to give us quite a going-over last night, but outside of a lot of noise, didn't upset things a great deal.

Again sincere thanks, and with best wishes for continued success. Sincerely yours, Cpl. H. G. Thompson.

Newfoundland, Sept. 18, 1940.

Dear Sirs,—

I received your box in last Monday's mail and it really was swell. The sweater and socks will sure come in handy, as it is real cool now.

I have gained 16 pounds since joining the army. Not bad for a little beef. Some vets led me to believe they ate it all, but I know there is plenty left for us. I have eaten a small herd of cattle myself.

My pal and I ate all the food in the box, the night it came, and it was swell.

In a magazine away up here, I saw some pictures of Camp Borden's soldiers, and there was Vic Bridges. Was I surprised!

Well, I must close now and get back to work. Hoping to hear from you soon. I hope they let us finish this, and not make us quit like they did you men in 1918. So long for now.

Rfn. E. W. Cole. See you all soon, I hope.

9 Carmelite Rd., Grand Falls, Newfoundland. Oct. 18, 1940

Dear Mrs. Blencoe,—

You will be rather surprised to hear from a perfect stranger, but having the pleasure of your two sons for the weekend, would like to inform you that they are in the best of health, and very much looking for their weekend leave. The people in Grand Falls are asked if they will accommodate two soldiers for the weekend, and their leave comes in every fourth weekend leave.

The airport is a very quiet place where they are, and I am sure you need not worry about them. They are looking well. They arrive in time for supper Saturday night, and don't return until Sunday at 11 o'clock, arriving home at 3 o'clock in the morning Monday.

About 105 are free each week, so they all get a chance of a change. I am sorry I have not sleeping room for them, but glad to have them for their meals and a bath any time they like.

We have been very lucky to have the pleasure of meeting so many Canadians. There are quite a lot of boys not able to have sleeping room, but they have everything fixed up for sleeping room for them, then they arrive for breakfast Sunday morning.

When they started taking the soldiers, we had the pleasure of your son Bob, also another soldier of the same company. Since that time we have had the pleasure of Bob again, also your son Ted, and the only trouble was the weekend was too short. However, we have offered our home to them whenever they get a leave, and delighted to give them a little pleasure.

We have not a large family, just one daughter, Jane, 19. Grand Falls is a very busy place Saturdays. I promised the boys I would write you, and we shall do all we can to make them happy. I shall be sending along the snaps soon as they reach us. Some chum, so we sent them to the boys.

Wednesday Janet got mail from them, and they hope to be moved this weekend. If so, will only be 20 miles away from us, so we shall often see them.

Well I hope my few lines will be accepted. With kind regards, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simpson.

Pte. A. W. McJann, B84251 1st Div. Amn. Co'y., B. Company, R.C.R.S.C., C.A.S.F., Base Post Office Canada.

October 4, 1940.

Dear friends of the Newmarket Veterans' Club

Dear Friends,—

Just a few lines to let you know that I received the parcel you sent me on the second of August. I was more than pleased with it, and was very thankful to you all, and everything was in good condition.

Well, I guess it is quite a job to keep in touch with all the boys from Newmarket, because we keep changing around to different units all the time, but it is not our fault. If I had anything to do with it, the next time I moved I would move back to Canada, because this is one hell of a place right now. But I wouldn't want to live here after the war is over, even that I did marry an English girl, and I am going to take her back to Canada with me, because she said that if I could only go back right now, she would go with me, but I just guess she won't go for a while anyhow, until this is all over with, if we live through it, but I think we will, because they won't come down where we can see them, they stay up in the clouds. But you bring them down just the same.

Well, I thank you very much for everything you have sent me, and I thank you all in Newmarket for it. I would let you know more, but I have to go on guard, but so long for now, and I still remain your friend, Arthur McJann.

IF YOU CAN'T SING, SHUT UP!

"Isn't the war terrible. Three hospitals bombed in England"... "The war is going bad, very bad; it's hard to say how it's going to turn out!"... These remarks were passed in our hearing within a very short time, one day recently. They are peculiar to a type of defeatist whose inherent pessimism can do more damage than a fifth columnist of the worst breed.

THERE'LL ALWAYS BE AN ENGLAND

There'll always be an England
While there's a country lane,
Wherever there's a cottage small
Beside a field of grain.
There'll always be an England
While there's a busy street,
Wherever there's a turning wheel,
A million marching feet.
Red, white and blue,
What does it mean to you?
Surely you're proud, shout it aloud;
Britons awake.
The Empire too, we can depend on you;
Freedom remains,
These are the chains nothing can break.
There'll always be an England,
And England shall be free,
If England means as much to you,
As England means to me.

Certainly the indiscriminate bombing of London has been terrible. No one would attempt to minimize the tragedy and havoc inflicted among defenceless civilians. But IT IS NOT WINNING THE WAR. The fact becomes more evident every day

"There'll Always Be An England;" there are 625 millions beneath the flag, even if they do not all know the tune... And in Canada of all places—if you can't sing, folks, shut up. There is no room for defeatists here.—Lachute Watchman, Que.
